Gov't Road Works Largest in History

More Than 200 Miles Of All-Weather Road Added

Alberta's network of hard-surfaced all-weather highways was increased by more than 200 miles as a result of the government's "biggest-in-history" highway program this summer and fall.

Details of the government's road program, on which $10,000,000 was spent, were released today by George Monckton, deputy minister of public works.

Crews have been at work on the program since early spring and all projects will be completed within the next two weeks.

Biggest portion of the appropriation, largest in the province's history, was spent in Central and Northern Alberta, where $5,841,307 was used to build and improve main highways. $600,000 was spent on building and repairing bridges, and $1,838,004 was used for the improving district and market roads.

In the area south of Red Deer $3,185,732 was spent on highways. $400,000 on bridges and $1,285,900 on district end market roads. As a result of the program 200 miles of hard-surfacing was completed.

OTHER PROGRAMS
This provided hard surfaced highways between Red Deer north to Leduc, a distance of about 75 miles; between Morinville and Clover Bar, a distance of 25 miles; and between High River and Lethbridge, east of Macleod to Lethbridge and west of Macleod to Pincher, a total distance of 100 miles.

Preliminary operations for hard surfacing several other highways have been completed.

In the Edmonton district asphalt surface base and black top was laid on highways between Edmonton and Chipman, Edmonton and Nampa, and Kincaid and Lloydminster. One and one-half miles of the Jasper highway immediately west of Edmonton was asphalted and black topped, and six miles between Oliver and Fort Saskatchewan was asphalted and black topped. These roads will all require a final seal coat.

Besides asphalt, blacktopping and seal coating portions of No. 1 highway between Red Deer and Edmonton, crews also completed 27 miles of highway surfacing chiefly on the Highway 160 between Sylvan Lake and the junction of No. 2 highway, and between Lacombe and Bentley.

25 MILES MORE
Besides hard surfacing of No. 1 and No. 3 highways between High River, Macleod and Lethbridge in southern Alberta, district crews completed on the Ponoka revision, Camrose reservoir, Devon turn-out and on highways between Jasper and Saunders, Junction of No. 2 south of Lacombe to No. 12 Junction, Wetaskiwin to Camrose, Chavira to the Saskatchewan Boundary, Wetaskiwin to Pigeon Lake.

Nearly 150 miles of existing highways in Central and Northern Alberta, including the district roads between Kinuso and Slave Lake, Vegreville and Inuvik, Beaver Crossing and Cold Lake, Carleton Place and Grouse, Mayette and Greenough, Bentley and Hinton, Camrose and Strathcona, Edmonton and Cooking Lake, and Leduc and Calmar, were re-gravelled.

Grading and graveling was completed on the Ponoka revision, Camrose reservoir, Devon turn-out and on highways between Jasper and Saunders, Junction of No. 2 south of Lacombe to No. 12 Junction, Wetaskiwin to Camrose, Chavira to the Saskatchewan Boundary, Wetaskiwin to Pigeon Lake.

Grading was completed on the new section of the four lane highway between Edmonton and Nisku, and on highways between Montrose and Leduc.

Scholarships Are Planned By Hotelmen

Alberta Hotel Association is considering establishment of high school and university scholarships, Albert Swinson, president of the association, announced today.

Details of the proposed scholarships were discussed with Hon. Ivan Case, minister of education, but no definite plan was devised. Further exploratory work will be carried out. It is expected that a definite announcement will be made at the executive meeting here Dec. 5.

Executive members of the association discussed the question of mixed drinking in provincial beer parlors, but nothing definite resulted.

Educational campaign to promote better hotel accommodations to meet increased tourist traffic also is being undertaken by the association.

Credit Men Hear Talk

Easier credit terms are in the offering as Canada enters a mild recession, Edmonton credit men were told last night.

Resolution was made by J. H. Snydam, general manager of Canadian Credit Men's Association to a joint dinner meeting by Edmonton branches of Canadian Credit Men's Association in the Carlton Hotel.

Mr. Snydam predicted credit would be extended to "everyone who can reasonably make good" when recession sets in.

Stating the credit business can be of great service to a growing city like Edmonton, Mr. Snydam observed that women on the whole make good managers in credit business.

Mr. Ross said devaluation was becoming necessary largely because Canadian has not been able to replace industrial plants with modern tools and equipment. The war was a big factor in this.

Feature of the meeting was presentation of the A.C.I. diploma to Stanley Turner of Great West Saddlery Limited by Mr. Snydam.

Delton Group Plan Blast Against Portable Schools

Edmonton public school board is going to hear plenty from Delton Home and School Association about portable class rooms. Delton association members don't like portable class rooms and will send a delegation to tell the next meeting of the school board just that.

At Monday night's meeting of the association a delegation was appointed to demand immediate construction of an addition to Delton school, promised in 1948.

Association officers pointed out that in 1948 the auditorium at Delton school was converted into classrooms, after the school board pledged it would have an addition completed within three years.

There are no indications that this addition will be built. The school board has instead installed one portable class room at Delton and another is to be installed shortly.

It was pointed out that despite a double shift in grade one and portable class room, moves have not commenced to alleviate the overcrowding.

K. W. Russell, supervisor of music in Edmonton public schools, addressed the association on music teaching methods in the schools.

The speaker expressed the view that children nowadays listen too much to the radio and do not have enough of their own music in the home.

Association decided to purchase a hockey cup for competition among boys in grade five and six.

Let's Beautify Edmonton

As we are a growing city, and up to the present have been too busy growing up to bother about our looks, we have taken upon ourselves an untidy appearance, which is not in keeping with our importance.

To beautify a city takes a long time and a lot of money. It is a task that requires the cooperation of all citizens. However, it is not too late to begin. We have a chance to make our city a model of beauty and order.

The best place to start our beautification is down along the river. Nature has given us some of the best scenery for miles around, right here in the centre of the city.

From White Mud, down the river to Forest Heights, the river banks give us scope seldom to be found anywhere. And it is essential that we take immediate steps to prevent this area from being spoiled by unsightly buildings and ill-considered developments.

The section between High Level and Low Level bridges lends itself naturally to landscaping. Here it would be possible to plant trees and shrubs, and to create a series of parks and playgrounds.

Automobile Parking

Parking of automobiles on narrow streets used as bus routes and main traffic arteries should be forbidden.

It not only slows up the traffic, but constitutes an ever-present hazard. Particularly is this so at night, when cars are parked on either side of the street, leaving only little more than a single lane available to traffic.

Motorists who leave their cars parked in such places should be compelled to leave them there.

Upside Down or Down Side Up?

It's getting warmer, so say the scientists, and they should know. After all they study such things at great length.

Most Albertans will agree with you, when you suggest that the weather has never been better as long or as cold as they used to be.

What could be responsible for such a phenomenon?

Well, several theories have been advanced lately, among them the suggestion that greater population is causing more heat vapours to rise and is gradually forcing the frozen north further back.

This is hardly true, as not only Canada but the whole of the northern hemisphere as well has been experiencing more tropical weather of late.

An interesting solution to the problem was put forward recently by two men who have been making a special study of the question.

Their theory is, that large quantities of ice are building up in the south polar regions. This build up has been going on for thousands of years, and sometimes to do so at a specified rate each year.

Their contention is, that the northern hemisphere is becoming warmer because to lay down ornamental gardens and parks, terrace the banks where they are steep and provide riverwalks and drives on either side.

If action were taken to stem the river and keep it clean in this section, a natural boating area would be available to the city's residents, while swimming pools, made safe by design and concrete, would provide the young and adults with swimming facilities in the most ideal surroundings.

A sandy beach could be provided, where parents could recline in comfort on hired chairs, while the children played in safety nearby.

Other cities have gone to great trouble to beautify their river banks and make them available as places of recreation and relaxation for their residents.

A beautified centre on the river's edge would be a fitting site for Edmonton's new auditorium, and when it is decided to provide one. In a landscaped setting, full advantage could be taken of the architect's art and a truly imposing scene could be created.

At the moment the river valley running through the centre of Edmonton is an eyesore. Every effort should be made, as circumstances permit, to make it the heart of the city's beautification scheme.

Should the time ever come—in say a couple of million years—when the world decides to tilt itself again, the effect would be as sudden as it was in the last time.

How do we know?

Well, some of the remains that have been found of pre-historic animals showed that they had four legs and two eyes. This indicates that they were overcome before they were aware of it.

Meanwhile, if they had two fellows are right, it's a good idea to keep on getting warmer up here, until one day the inhabitants find themselves upside down or something.

These do not care to be upside down, but it does raise an interesting question, are we upside down at the moment, or down side up?

By the way, the ever-increasing weight of ice at the Antarctic is tending to tilt the world on its axis, thus bringing the northern regions nearer to the equator.

They point to the fact that there is evidence of this having happened before, as remains have been found in northern parts of pre-historic flora and fauna belonging to tropical or semi-tropical regions, indicating that at one time the north must have been in the warm belt.

The Unseen Audience

Stan Ross Church Suggested As Auditorium

Now that the vote on a Civic auditorium has been killed with the result that it will be another three years, if ever, before such a building can be erected, we are now looking for a suitable alternative building in which meetings, conventions, galas and entertainment might be held.

The Chamber of Commerce has suggested the armory. Unfortunately that was tried years ago and found wanting. It was no less than Sir Harry Lauder as being completely hopeless.

The Chamber of Commerce seems to suggest public subscription as a means for raising money, that would entail years of delay.

Yet right before us there is another alternative and that is MacDougall Church which is already being used for the number of gatherings. MacDougall Church is far from satisfactory for many of the types of gatherings which would use an auditorium.

The plan would be to purchase the building and retain it as a church, while it remains a church, could hardly be satisfactory to the community. But if it could be acquired and altered, it could easily be changed into an auditorium and one located at an ideal spot overlooking the valley.

It is not too soon to suggest that the members of MacDougall Church desire to move. Yet with the building up of the new auditorium, it seems reasonable to suppose that the members of the church would be happy to have a new church in a less-commercialized location.

It might be suggested that the church is too small or too old, or that it is too far from the city center. But if it could be acquired and altered, it could easily be changed into an auditorium and one located at an ideal spot overlooking the valley.

Letters to the Editor

Separate Schools And Unity

Editor, Bulletin—A local paper of Oct. 24st, quoted an Ontario clergyman voicing his disapproval of Roman Catholic separate schools in that province. To quote, "The privilege of separate schools was given to the Roman Catholics because of their plea for opportunity to teach the B.N.A. Act, a right which applies equally to the Protestant minority in Quebec as to the Roman Catholic minority in Ontario."

Sir John A. Macdonald stated that the B.N.A. Act was passed in the House of Commons when he said, "Speaking as a Protestant, I would not care to have my children educated by Catholics. In the same manner I know Catholics do not care to have their children educated by Protestants."

There is more logic thinking when the clergyman says, "A policy which divides children in their lights on, but even this would not solve the problem."

In residential districts—where the menace is most pronounced—motorists should park their cars in the nearest side street.

They will probably set up a moon about having to walk a few yards from car to home, but we all tend to use our cars too much, and the little extra exercise would do us good.

Should the time ever come—in say a couple of million years—when the world decides to tilt itself again, the effect would be as sudden as it was in the last time.

How do we know?

Well, some of the remains that have been found of pre-historic animals showed that they had four legs and two eyes. This indicates that they were overcome before they were aware of it.

Meanwhile, if they had two fellows are right, it's a good idea to keep on getting warmer up here, until one day the inhabitants find themselves upside down or something.

These do not care to be upside down, but it does raise an interesting question, are we upside down at the moment, or down side up?

By the way, the ever-increasing weight of ice at the Antarctic is tending to tilt the world on its axis, thus bringing the northern regions nearer to the equator.

They point to the fact that there is evidence of this having happened before, as remains have been found in northern parts of pre-historic flora and fauna belonging to tropical or semi-tropical regions, indicating that at one time the north must have been in the warm belt.

OIL-FROM-COAL STUDY IS URGED IN COMMONS

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—(CPI)—The government was urged last night in the House of Commons to finance research into the possibility of economically producing oil as a by-product of coal.

Clarke Gillis (COP—Cape Breton South), a Nova Scotia coal miner, said this research should be carried out because oil is the fuel of "the near future."

However, oil resources in North America were not inexhaustible and the day might come when supplies would begin to dwindle.

Devaluation Nothing New Here Claims MP

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—Devaluation is nothing new, Clarke Gillis (COP—Cape Breton South) told the Commons last night.

Finance Minister Abbott had been derailing the Canadian dollar ever since 1932.

Mr. Gillis said the devaluation he referred to was in the increased cost-of-living. In the overall

That 'Two-for-Five' Trade

Those things—five and two—came back to haunt Cy Thomas again last night, as they did Saskatoon Quakers as a whole.

Scoreboard in Soudan Stadium read 5-2, with Flyers on the long end after 60 minutes of lively puckare. Net result served to remind it's just about two years ago now the bustling Thomas, then with Chicago Black Hawks of the Big Apple, figured in the famous "two-for-five" trade. Hawks dealt off Max Bentley and rookie Thomas (he was green out of the Western Canada loop) to Toronto for Gayo Stewart, Gus Bodnar, Bud Poile, Elwyn Morris and Ernie Dickens.

It was one of the big deals of NHL history. Likewise, as events proved, it tolled the bell for Thomas' hopes of earning gold and glory as a major league star.

Shortly after reporting to Toronto he rammed into the end of Maple Leaf Gardens and rucked up an arm. He was in bed for weeks. Finally recovered, the boy from Alberta's Cold Branch was shipped down the river to Pittsburgh.

Down there Thomas lost his yen for the game, especially as he had turned his back on a college career to join Hawks in the first place.

Back to the Three 'R's'

So, once more he returned his field to beat a path to University of Alberta. That's where he spent last hockey season, battling away for the Golden Bears.

Now he's at Saskatchewan 'U', and hoping Quakers go somewhere the term.

"And I love it at Saskatchewan," he admitted last night in a post-game bull-session in the Quaker dressing room. While he spoke, the natty dresser hastily shed his hockey togs, bolted to the shower and out, then proceeded to don a double-breasted, two-tone ensemble calculated to knock your eyes out.

What with the Quakers still winless and all, Hunter made no attempt to hide his mounting blue pressure. "But we'll win our next two games," he told no one in particular.

Coach Nick Metz, seated on a chair near the door, played the strongman role to the hilt. But then what could he talk about, unless it was to draw attention to the fact that the Thomas-Chuck McCullough-Steve Gaber line has been scored on three times?

Ken (Red) Hunter came over and draped an arm around "Red's" shoulders. "Best player on the ice," he remarked, with fine disregard for the fact that Flyers' Colin Kilburn had scored three goals. Steve Latoski, too, had gone impressively.

Actually, the ex-stamp sniper had hardly been in the game since his new-found teammates, even by the time the game was "Kil" be while before he fits in.

Hunter ("Red," that is) had been trying to get his release from Calgary since early in the summer. He seemed genuinely happy over the switch, now that it had come at last.

The one-time spark-plug of the Hunter-Dunc Grant-Bob Brownridge line figures to do things for Quaker attack before long. At 20 he still has plenty of hockey left in him and the change of uniform should bring it out.

Bill Hunter's parting remark was, "Say, if you send a story to Saskatoon on the game, make it a good one." So?

East Turf Season Folding

Western Nags Fail to Win Consistently

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—(CP)—Purchase of a western two-year-old thoroughbred colt by Col. R. St. McLaughlin, owner of Parkwood stables—possibly the largest breeding and racing establishment in the east—received attention on the arrival of the colt at the Toronto track by western racing stables.

R. J. Speers of Winnipeg, dean of western racing, purchased the colt, McLaughlin to stay his departure from the sport for at least another year when he parted with the classy Pine River for a non-racing colt.

The colt is eligible for the 1960 King's Plate.

Informal sources said the price, which was not disclosed, was $15,000.

McLaughlin is the 1959 King's Plate.

The contingent is smaller because the great number of horses in the usual influx from Quebec province has not yet arrived.

It is difficult to enter the race.

Mr. H. Massey of Calgary, one of the season's few leading trainers, has won several races with her small stable.

R. P. Pearson, also of Calgary, has scored probably the most of the season's winners.

Gerrity, victor of five starts in the east.

With 10 days remaining in the 1959 season at Dufrin Park's half-mile track, western jockeys are expected to show to better advantage. Many of the horses are expected to be on the smaller tracks in the prairie provinces.

Edmonton, too, has been bringing a small stable to the fall meetings in Toronto.

For many years, has a two-year-old Hildesheim, which is winning its share of the season's races.

At the end of the season, a number of races at the advanced age of 11 and 12 years.

They're looking forward to a big season, down there by the Havelock River.

And Friday will see Royal curl holding its semi-annual meeting. A big night of business followed by brew and skittles, it is the work.

Among the interesting and progressive developments—the Royal was the recent appointment of a press representative.

Near rival to the sophomore winner is Flyers' Steve Latoski with nine. Three others, Doug Anderson of Edmonton and Tony Brown and Gord Robertson of Regina, each with eight points.

Flyers' defenceman Eddie Cuth, who has got nothing but penalties has far in the WCJHL, leading the pack with 25 minutes spent in the sin bin.

Following are the point leaders.

One Man's Meat Another's Future

By Ken Liddell
Provincial News Editor

If you noticed the picture in the paper the other day, L. B. Thomson was the man in the middle; the one with the facial expression that left the impression he was just about to stand up and cheer.

On either side of him were A. Balmer Watt, veteran Edmonton newspaper editor, and James Fowler, principal of Provincial Institute of Technology and Art at Calgary, and despite Mr. Thomson's expression they were not at the races but up front at University of Alberta convocation where they received honorary doctors of law degrees.

The article indicated this honor was conferred upon the three gentlemen in recognition of their contribution to the cultural welfare of Western Canada.

Ponoka's Cultured Pigs?

Cultural improvement of the people would undoubtedly describe the life work of a newspaper editor and a teacher, but hardly that of Mr. Thomson who only the other day was telling us how some years ago he went around the Ponoka district organizing pig clubs. Maybe Ponoka has cultured pigs?

But the fact that Ponoka now devotes one day every week to what is known as "hog day," when farmers ship their hogs, may attest in some measure to Mr. Thomson's success as an organizer of pig clubs.

Now Horatio Alger stories are common and rather tiring. If you looked into the background of any successful self-made man you would find that in boyhood he delivered telegrams or newspapers or groceries, if for no other reason than most kids do that sort of thing.

When people make a point of bringing their boyhood chores into the story of their present success it always reminds us of the story of the boy who applied for a job delivering meat.

When he told the butcher his name was Shakespeare, the butcher said "well, that's a well known name", and the kid replied, "I've been delivering meat around here for a long time."

So for the purpose of these few words we single out Mr. Thomson's story not because it may be any different from that of Mr. Watt or Mr. Fowler, but simply because we happen to know something about it.

Opportunity in Agriculture

And it is a story that points out the opportunities in this country for men of vision in the field of agricultural research or rehabilitation.

All this is from memory and it wouldn't pay to be too specific. But we do know that after Mr. Thomson came to this country from New Zealand he was a farm hand.

And to finance his higher learning in things agricultural, he went from door to door in Calgary asking whoever came to the door if they had any scissoring they wanted sharpened.

One thing led to another and in due course Mr. Thomson became superintendent of the federal government's experimental station at Swift Current, one of the most important in the country.

About a year ago he was appointed director of the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Administration, commonly known as P.F.R.A., the provisions of which, incidentally, he helped frame.

Northern and central Albertans are not as familiar with P.F.R.A. as other sections of the farming west. It is better known in the south with its big St. Mary's dam project; in Saskatchewan where it has built irrigation projects, moved hundreds from sub-marginal lands that became community pastures, and where it is working on development of the South Saskatchewan River.

Moving Into the North

But it will be along this way. Its engineers have completed surveys of a proposed irrigation project around Hanna. And they have been invited to help to do something about river flood control in northern Alberta.

But the immediate point of this is not the fact that Mr. Thomson once sharpened scissoring in Calgary, which in itself is enough to sharpen a man's wits.

Nor the fact that he organized pig clubs around Ponoka. Nor the fact that the man who directs the biggest of enterprises for welfare of the farmer was once a farm hand. But the fact that in this country such a thing is possible.

Turner Valley Reserves 10 Yrs.

Increasing Use of Gas
Reduces Supply Sharply

CALGARY, Oct. 26.—(CP)—The Board of Public Utilities Commissioners was told yesterday the estimated life of the Turner Valley natural gas reserves has been reduced to 10 years—compared with the 30 years estimate in 1939—due chiefly to increasing use of gas by big industrial consumers.

Stanley J. Davies, gas engineer for the city of Calgary, urged that the big consumers should pay their fair share of present distribution costs. They would "go elsewhere when the reserves are exhausted and have no part in replacing the reserves from some other source or supply of a greatly-increasing cost."

The utility board is hearing evidence before approving a new schedule of rates to be charged consumers of natural gas in southern Alberta by the Canadian Western Natural Gas Co. Ltd.

Three Titles In 3 Years

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 26.—Howard Ruppel, vice-president of the Rockyford Junior Grain Club, climbed to last place here at the weekend as his wheat sample in the 19th annual Drumheller show secured a championship to give the 19 year-old University student three titles in consecutive years.

The victory gives Ruppel possession of the Toohock Trophy. Drumheller, currently enrolled at the University of Manitoba in Agriculture, started his career in the realm of wheat at 12 years of age. Consistently he has been a winner in local shows with samples and as a judge.

In 1947, as one of a team representing Alberta at the Toronto Royal, he was top honors for individual merit in wheat judging. His parents have farmed in the district for the past 31 years.

Final preparations for the sample winning the championship for Howard last weekend were made at Thanksgiving. Howard flew from Winnipeg to his home at Rockyford to give the winning wheat sample a thorough and final check before the show in Drumheller.

The Waterloo Association also paid $2,500 to Elmerford Farms, Oshawa, Ont., for a four-month-old bull calf.

Friendship 'Youngsters' in Fun and Frolic

MAY WE ALWAYS DANCE is no idle wish for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewart whose waltzing days in Bonnie Scotland were revived again at Friendship Club's ball. And blind, 75-year-old Mr. Ewart and his 72-year-old wife declare Halloween parties are far more fun when you're 70-odd than when you're 17.

Formby Scores Triumph In Sales Pavilion Show

Edmonton had itself a pack of fun last night. At the Sales Pavilion, George Formby and his London Music Hall Varieties kept the crowd in laughs for two and one-half hours.

It was one of the biggest musicals ever to jam the Pavilion, and the 2,000 or so people who journeyed to the northeast end of town to see a spot of vaudeville were far from disappointed.

They loved every minute of George Formby and his show. An audience always likes humor and lots of action out loud. The Formby show offered plenty of both.

Dancing, slapstick, acrobatics, magician's tricks, singing, and mimicry—variety galore, and it was all in the Formby show.

Naturally the high spot of the show was Formby himself. Everyone had laughed and applauded for half a dozen acts from the beginning of the Music Hall Varieties.

FORMBY TO FORE

But when the little British comedian stepped on stage with his lovely, sly, sissy grin and Lancashire accent, there was a series of gut-fun and rounds of applause that rocked the Sales Pavilion.

Formby was terrific.

Despite a bad cold he'd caught in Manitoba, and which was making him feel downright miserable, he joked and played his ukulele and sang until the crowd was in stitches.

Just after he'd stepped on stage and received his first big hand, and told a couple of naughty jokes, the audience was applauding enthusiastically—especially after the naughty jokes.

"Ee, you're a bad lot," he chuckled.

There was one loud guffaw, and from then on, Edmonton was his.

MRS. FORMBY, TOO

TCA Fires 144 In B.C.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe said yesterday that some 144 men are being laid off from Trans-Canada Air Lines maintenance staff in Vancouver.

Replying to Angus MacInnis (CCF-Vancouver East), Mr. Howe said the maintenance staff had been organized some time ago to service TCA's trans-Pacific service. However, it was later decided that Canadian Pacific Airlines would be given the franchise for the trans-Pacific service.

Most of those laid off were rather junior men, said Mr. Howe. Some 37 of the 144 released had seniority and were entitled to call for transfer to other TCA points.

An informal arrangement had been made under which CPA agreed to give priority to those maintenance men released by TCA.

Mr. MacInnis asked if it was true that TCA planes now would have to fly to Montreal for overhauls.

HORSEHIDE STOLEN AS THIEVES RAMPANT

An odd assortment of articles—including a horsehide and two electric shavers—were stolen by thieves in the city yesterday.

Theft of the horsehide—a brown mottled one—was reported to city police by Gordon Ambler of 12455-58 street.

Pair to Stand Trial On Robbery Charge

A charge of robbery with violence was withdrawn against a city man yesterday while his two companions were committed for supreme court trial.

Released was Neil A. Graden, one of three men who, along with Edward Haebler and Robert Kuhn were committed by Magistrate J. McCulla.

The two men are accused of beating and robbing Edward Werner of $100 in his farm home just outside city limits on Calgary Trail on October 9.

NOT SUFFICIENT

Representing Graden was Neil MacInnis, who told Magistrate McCulla that evidence against the man was not sufficient to warrant high court trial.

Strong suspicions that evidence was slanted was voiced by Mr. MacInnis.

"Nothing else in the house was disturbed except the wallet the accused were alleged to have taken," he said.

The trio was originally charged with entering Werner's home on pretext of buying some beer.

They were alleged to have taken Werner and his wife and taken a wallet containing $100 from the woman's pocket.

Jail was set at $3,000 each for the two accused.

Extensions Requested

Additional equipment storage buildings are essential if the city engineer's department is to prevent rapid depreciation and deterioration of its greatly increased stock of machinery, city commissioners said today.

They urged rates-payors' approval Nov. 2 of the two bylaws covering equipment-storage buildings for the engineer's department. One is to authorize borrowing $50,000 for a South Side storage building and the other to authorize $60,000 for a north side building.

"Rapid growth of the city in recent years has greatly increased the work required to be done by city's engineer's department," commissioners said.

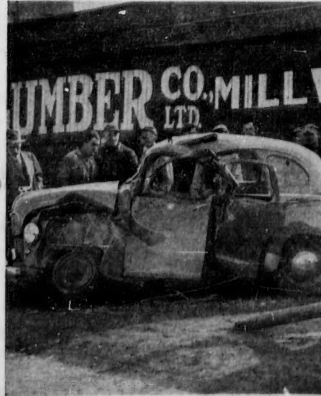

"Much equipment, such as ditching machines, street cleaning apparatus, scavenging equipment, bulldozers, graders, etc., must be obtained immediately. Buildings to house the new equipment is likewise necessary if rapid depreciation and deterioration of city equipment is to be prevented.

"A modern city cannot function without equipment, and for that reason the support of burgesses is urgently requested by the city administration."

He said that during the search he heard Const. W. W. Peterson, alone at the time with Conradson, calling for help. As the other three RCMP officers ran back to the farm where they saw Conradson with a search warrant and looked for evidence of a robbery still and property stolen from the hardware at nearby Irteton.

Household Chores Eased by Gadgets Manufacturers Design Gadgets To Lighten Household Work

The broom and brush brigade will applaud new household gadgets aimed at making the housewife's lot easier, homekeeping more efficient.

From the head of the house can breathe easier, thanks to a new and improved rolling pin that holds its shape no matter how long it is used.

The new plastic gadget for easy small rollers set in a circular motion, the roller's inner handle, a housewife can flatten a lump of dough into the thinnest pie crust by a light back and forth motion. This acts the right roller all around.

The baking gadget comes in bright colors; can be craved into the forest, in comfort, enough for storing in a kitchen drawer.

ALL THE CONVENIENCES

The bookbinding, change of hanging into a laundry hamper and pulling out clothes have been eliminated by a self-emptying hamper. The hanging rack is actually in the hamper construction.

The woven steel body has but three sides and is attached by hinges to the bathroom door, which forms the back. Now, the housewife can touch her hand to the hamper bottom, and presto, the entire case lifts on its hinges and releases its contents.

PLASTIC BROOM DUO

A broom not only sweeps clean but can give a side all the way to the dust heap in a bright plastic dustpan.

The pan fits snugly over practically any broom head and sweeps along with the broom to the destination. This washable dustpan comes in a combination of bright colors.

Two other plastic gadgets offer air-tight service around the house. A modern, futuristic plastic bread box with no crevices to store dirt and dust, is washable and handy.

A mechanical, crank-turned cherry pitter, made in a bright red plastic as the cherries it pits can be clamped to a table, in 10 seconds.

Roy Rogers Star Of New Western

'Susanna Pass' Is Opening Run at Strand Tomorrow

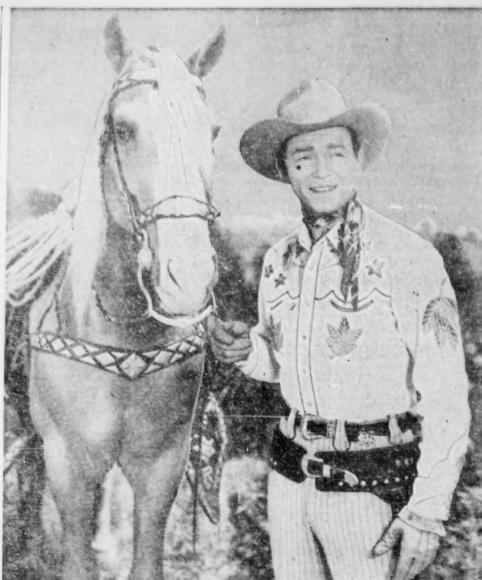

It is generally conceded that Roy Rogers cannot make a bad picture! Instead of being rated "Good," "Bad," or "Indifferent," his pictures are either "Good," "Better," or "Excellent."

Perhaps it is the universality of his appeal, his facility for pleasing every type of theatre-goer from children on up through hobbys, bowlers, and even the adults.

At any rate, "Susanna Pass," which opens tomorrow at the Strand Theatre, is one of the best of a series of Republic Trailers westerns which rate only superlatives.

Roy is his own charming, personable self, portraying the young Game Warden who can scent an injustice or a place of shuldugery blindfolded and with both hands tied behind his back.

The appeal of this particular western is heightened by the presence of the program.

BACK TO SCREEN to delight hearts of young and old is Roy Rogers and his famous horse Trigger. He stars in "Susanna Pass," which has been acclaimed as one of Republic's best in their series of Trucolor westerns. "Susanna Pass" starts tomorrow at Strand Theatre.

India Head Is Rebuked

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—(CP)—Pakistan's spokesman in Canada yesterday rebuked Prime Minister Nehru of India for "misleading" the public as to the feeling between the two young neighbor nations broke into the placid, formal atmosphere of Nehru's visit to the capital.

A few hours after Pandit Nehru ranged around the world scene during a luncheon discussion with Prime Minister St. Laurent and External Affairs Minister Pearson, he was the butt of a statement of "surprise and sorrow" by Mohammed Ali, Pakistan high commissioner.

Objects to Remarks Mohammed Ali objected to press conference statements by Pandit Nehru Monday that Pakistan is "developing a theocratic state" where no non-Muslims hold high office.

Mohammed Ali said the Pakistan government "makes no distinction of any kind in its appointments" and listed one cabinet minister, a provincial governor, judges, other officials and the heads of the three services "in name but a few" non-Muslims who held high positions.

He did not return to Pandit Nehru's remarks accusing Pakistan of "brutal aggression" in Kashmir. He said the matter is before the security council of the United Nations and our stand in the matter is too well known to bear repetition.

Man Sentenced To Hang For Girl's Murder

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Oct. 26.—(CP)—George Chupik, 26, of St. Boniface, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged for the farm-house hideout-slaying nearly four years old of 12-year-old Irene Gubalos. It marked the second time the death sentence had been passed on Chupik.

Chupik first appeared in court in Prince Albert, Sask., when he was declared unfit to stand trial because of insanity. He was adjudged sane in June this year and put on trial. He was sentenced at his June trial to be hanged but a retrial was ordered by the Saskatchewan appeal court on grounds that the jury had been misdirected by Mr. Justice C. E. Taylor.
